

Daniel Burdge

March 19, 2022

Daniel A. Burdge, 66, of the Holiday City section of Toms River passed away on Saturday, March 19, 2022 at Community Medical Center, Toms River. Born Neptune, he grew up in Howell and lived in Lakewood, Toms River and Texas for many years before settling in Holiday City in 2019.

Mr. Burdge was a window treatment installer for Art's Windows, Lakewood for many years. He was a NASCAR fan and enjoyed working on cars, and was a "Mr. Fix-it" around the house. He was always busy and active, and enjoyed spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren.

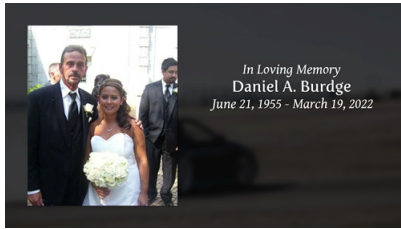

He was predeceased by his daughter, Danielle Burdge, in 2010, and by his ex-wife, Christina Burdge in 2021. He is survived by his children, Robert Thompson and his wife Courtney, David Thompson and his wife Amy, Christine Arlauckas and her husband Peter, and Daniel "Boo" Burdge and his partner Kayla Smith; his grandchildren, Jack, Stephanie and Ellie Thompson, Leela Arlauckas, and Carter and Kenzie Burdge.

Services were private.

“ So many great memories, so many laughs. Racing, drinking coffee in his kitchen, the regent diner after the races- there would be 20 of us. The time Danny put the pickle in Roger Leandro's pocket at the diner after Turkey derby. Roger didn't put the jacket on til opening night the next year and found the pickle- Danny laughed so hard. partners on the pro stock and 57 Street stock. God bless his family and friends, love Rich, Colleen and Shanon Mongeau

“ Dearest Danny
You will be greatly missed by all who loves you! What a great reunion you must've had with Danielle.
My fondest memories of you are of us growing up together in Long Branch. And your witty personality.
Rest in peace Danny and know that you are loved! God bless
Until we meet again, goodbye my dear cousin. Love you Cuz❤️
